Prof. Dr. Wen. L. Soong from the University of Adelaide gave a seminar about 'Keys to Success in PhD Research' at 16:00 – 17:00, 26th October 2016 in the Lecture Theatre 7, Broad Lane Block. This event is jointly held by the IEEE University of Sheffield Student Branch Joint IAS/PELS Chapter and the Electrical Machines and Drives Research Group, The University of Sheffield.

The seminar was hosted by Professor Zi-Qiang Zhu, the head of the EMD group leader. More than 50 PhD students and 3 PhD supervisors attend this seminar. During the seminar, the attendees had good and instructive talk with Prof. Soong regarding on PhD thesis study and PhD thesis writing.

Prof. Soong was with General Electric Corporate Research and Development, Schenectady, NY, USA, before joining the University of Adelaide in 1998, where he is currently an Associate Professor. His research interests include permanent-magnet and reluctance machines, renewable-energy generation and condition monitoring.
