

IEEE IAS Most Happening Chapter Contest

Bylaws and Procedure Manual

Submission due date: Continuous submissions until 30 April 2022

The IEEE IAS Most Happening Chapter Contest Purpose:

The purpose of this contest is to recognize the IAS chapters that have been continuously organizing and hosting various events and activities throughout the past year. Chapters are evaluated based on the number of online submissions done by the chapter during the past year and the quality and diversity of the events hosted by the chapters.

Eligibility:

Any active IAS Chapter can make submissions. Submissions are allocated based on the specific chapter which held the event.

Submission Procedure:

To enter the contest, chapters can make submissions about their chapter activities using the new “IEEE Industry Applications Society Chapters & Membership Development” Facebook page. For the 2022 contest, the articles about activities that happened from 30 March 2022 until 30 April 2022 will be considered.

Chapters can make a submission as follows:

1. Join the IAS Chapters and Membership Development Facebook page at the following link: Most Happening Chapter Contest
2. Post about a chapter activity - Include the following details:
 - i. Chapter name (name of organiser)
 - ii. Date of event
 - iii. Location – where was the event held or indicate virtual if event was held online
 - iv. No. of participants
 - v. Short description about event.
 - vi. Include a photograph if available
3. Invite chapter members to like and comment about your post.

Alternatively, chapters can also still make submissions using the “IAS CMD NEWSLETTER” website (<http://sites.ieee.org/ias-cmd/861-2/submit-an-activity/>) should you not have access to Facebook in your location.

Selection Criteria:

Winning chapters are selected based on the following criteria:

- Number of articles submitted
- Number of selected articles published
- Activities/events mentioned in the published articles

- Quality of the events
- Regularity of submissions

Prizes:

- 1st Prize: $350
