

Akshay Kumar Rathore is an IEEE Fellow and expert in power electronics and control of electrical motor drives. He received the Gold Medal for securing the highest academic standing in his Master's degree among all electrical engineering specializations at Indian Institute of Technology (BHU) Varanasi, India. He received his PhD degree in Power Electronics from University of Victoria, British Columbia, Canada in 2008. He had two subsequent postdoctoral research appointments with the University of Wuppertal, Germany, and the University of Illinois at Chicago, USA. From November 2010 to February 2016, he served as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, National University of Singapore. From March 2016-Dec 2021, he served as an Associate Professor at the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, Concordia University, Montreal, Canada where he was listed in the Provost Circle of Distinction in 2021. He served as Graduate Program Director and Chair of Graduate Awards during 2020-21.

Dr. Rathore is a recipient of the 2013 IEEE IAS Andrew W. Smith Outstanding Young Member Achievement Award, 2014 Isao Takahashi Power Electronics Award, 2017 IEEE IES David Irwin Early Career Award, 2020 IEEE IAS Outstanding Area Chair Award, 2020 IEEE Bimal Bose Award for Industrial Electronics Applications in Energy Systems and 2021 Nagamori Award. He published above 300 research papers in international journals and conferences, including 98 IEEE TRANSACTIONS. He supervised 11 PhD theses, 13 Master's theses, and trained 4 postdoctoral research fellows.

He is currently serving as the IAS Awards Department Chair, IEEE Nikola Tesla Award Committee member and Chair of IEEE IAS Renewable and Sustainable Energy Conversion Systems Committee. He chaired IEEE IAS Industrial Automation and Control committee (2018-2019) and served as the Vice-Chair IAS MSDAD Department (2022-2023).
